PART 2: WRITING A NOTE

Carol, the assistant teacher from England at your school, has helped you with a presentation about Scotland. You've just given the presentation.

Write her a note to thank her and include information about

- how you feel about the presentation now
- the photos you got from her
- how your class reacted to the presentation
- your teacher's comments on the presentation

You will need at least 60 words and should take no more than 10 minutes to complete this task.

PART 3: WRITING AN EMAIL

You came home a week ago from a four-week stay with the Millers, an English family. You now want to write them an email.

In this email you should

- thank them and tell them what you liked best about staying with them
- tell them about your journey home
- tell them what your parents said about the souvenirs you bought
- tell them what you have done in the last few days
- invite them to stay at your home when they come to Austria

You will need between 120 and 150 words and should take no more than 20 minutes to complete this task.

This is the end of the AOC-Check Writing
